

Who Am I

Assignment: This is a narrative essay that will be started in class. You may need to take parts of this assignment home in order to finish.

Step 1: In your journal make a list of the things/people/places/hobbies/beliefs/actions that make you you.

Step 2: Choose one item from your list that is going to be your focus.

Step 3: In your journal, brainstorm a list of details for the item. Be specific, vivid, and thorough.

Step 4: Organize these details in a meaningful way that tells part of the story of who you are. This is the rough draft phase. The trick to writing is to write. Do not overthink this step. Just get your story on paper. Remember you write your first draft with your heart and you write your second draft with your head. Write until you cannot write anymore, but if you need a reference point 1 to 2 handwritten pages is where you should be.

*Your writing needs to be focused on the item you chose from your list.
